ACCOMMODATION

The ABA has obtained a block booking at The May Fair Hotel in London and the Hilton Strasbourg Hotel. In addition, the ABA has secured a block of rooms at a number of Radisson Edwardian Hotels which are located in reasonable proximity to the May Fair Hotel. Special rates have been negotiated for registrants. As you would be aware, June and July is high season when high prices apply. A number of rooms are allocated to the ABA so it is essential to register early as the room blocks available are strictly limited and the same rates may not be available once the ABA allocation has been fully utilised.

You will need to pay for your accommodation (room only) in advance and forward your accommodation request on the attached separate form to the Conference Travel Agent at the address listed or via facsimile. Unfortunately, accommodation requests cannot be processed without full payment. Our Conference Travel Agent will confirm your accommodation bookings and charges with you directly. Please note that check-in is 3pm and checkout is 12.00 noon.

Conference Hotel

The Conference hotel in Strasbourg is the Hilton Strasbourg Hotel and the May Fair Hotel in London. Requests for alternate accommodation should be directed to the Conference Travel Agent. Further accommodation details can be found at www.worldtravel.com.au/ABAConference2009. The web link will be active after 15 January, 2009.

Tours

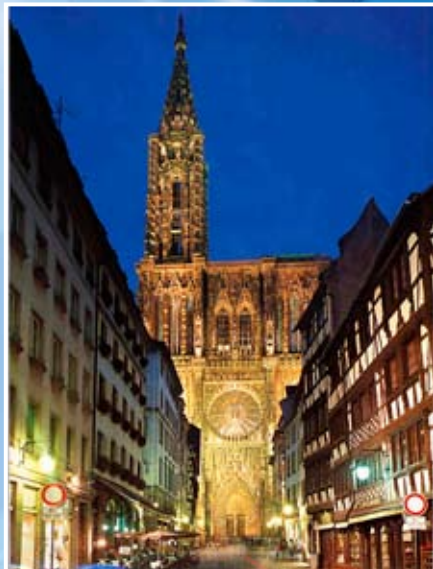

Tour details can be found at www.worldtravel.com.au/ABAConference2009. The web link will be active after 15 January, 2009.

Passports

When traveling to the United Kingdom or Europe, you must have an Australian passport (with a minimum validity of six months beyond travel dates). No visa is required for tourist travel for a stay under 90 days.

Dress

The dress for the Opening Reception is business attire. The dress for the Business Sessions is smart casual. The dress for the Gala Dinner is Black Tie.

Travel and Medical Insurance

You are strongly advised to take out both travel and medical insurance. Should you become ill or have an accident the cost of private medical care in Europe and the United Kingdom can be high.

Carry on Baggage Limitations

Please check with the Conference Travel Agent or your airline for any restrictions which may apply to carry on baggage.

Climate

The average weather in Strasbourg in June can be warm and humid. The temperature ranges from average of 18C to 20C. July is one of the warmest months of the year. The average London temperature in July is 24C with a low of 14C. It is advisable to pack a lightweight raincoat in case of showers.

Electricity

The electrical current in France is 220 Volts (AC). In the United Kingdom it is 240 volts (AC). It is advisable to purchase a universal adapter prior to your departure.

Conference Website

The conference page at the ABA website (www.austbar.asn.au) will be active after 15 January 2009.

Disabled Access

Please notify the Conference Travel Agent if you require special assistance.
